

PRESS RELEASE

PEARSON HINCHLIFFE ADVISES JSMS GROUP LIMITED

Pearson Hinchliffe has recently acted on behalf of JSMS Group Limited in its acquisition of Jordan Site Management Services Limited from MacLellan Group plc for an undisclosed sum.

JSMS Group Limited is based at Prince of Wales House, Bleasby Street, Oldham and is owned and managed by Howard Dixon. Howard is the former Operations and Marketing Director of Cunnington Cooper Limited which was an extremely successful Company based in Dobcross.

Jordan Site Management Services Limited is an engineering services and facilities management company employing 120 people. A major part of its business is the management of facilities in the motor manufacturing industry and in particular Ford UK.

Howard Dixon who has considerable experience in the engineering and facilities management industry says "JSMS Group Limited is an expanding organisation specialising in engineering and facilities management. Its recent acquisition of Jordan Site Management Services Limited is one of a number of ventures in which it is involved. It is currently in negotiation to acquire a North West based company specialising in the electrical industry". He added, "that after a period of 6 weeks negotiations we were delighted to complete the transaction in seven days from receipt of the initial documents".

Roger Hinchliffe led the Corporate Team at Pearson Hinchliffe assisted by Corporate Solicitor Juliet Emmerson.

JSMS Group Limited was advised by David Read, a partner in Gatley Read, Chartered Accountants of Oldham. David who was trained at Ernst and Young one of the big four accountancy practices specialises in mergers and acquisitions.

For further information please contact:

Isabella Hamilton-Conboy
Practice Development Manager
Pearson Hinchliffe Solicitors
Albion House
31 Queen Street
Oldham
OL1 1RD

Telephone 0161 785 3500
e-mail: ihamiltonconboy@pearson-hinchliffe.co.uk
website: www.pearson-hinchliffe.co.uk